

Být mlád - Jung zu sein

Basic information

Být mlád – To Be Young is a creative film project, in which young people out of two different states cooperate, including handicapped people. This people differ in their age and nationality, but are combined through their interest in production of films and photos in all different genres.

The communication and activities will be taking place in Prague, Stribro, Carlsbad, Zlin, Tirschenreuth and Tunis for 365 days, that means from May 2012 till May 2013!

www.videoculture.cz/bytmlad